PETITIONS AND RECORDS OF NATURALIZATION OF THE US DISTRICT COURT AND CIRCUIT COURTS OF THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS, 1906-1929

Introduction

The petitions for admission to citizenship reproduced on this microfilm are contained in three separate series of bound volumes. They include the petitions of the United States District Court, September, 1906 to June, 1929, petitions 1 to 119586 (rolls 1-309); military petitions for the United States District Court, January to July, 1919, petitions 1 to 5492 (rolls 310-317); and petitions for the former United States Circuit Court, October, 1906 to December, 1911, petitions 1 to 5357 (rolls 318-330). For much of the period covered by these volumes copies of the declaration of intention and copies of the certificate of arrival are included with the petitions. The petitions are arranged chronologically by the date the petition was filed in the court, and they are numbered consecutively. The volumes of the United States Circuit Court, and the volumes of the United States District Court through December, 1916, contain alphabetical name index in the front of each volume. The index has been filmed with each volume.

Records of the United States District Court

PETITIONS AND RECORDS OF NATURALIZATION. Sept. 1906-June 1929, petition no. 1 to 119586. 421 vols., vols. 1 to 425 (there are no volumes numbered 184, 204, 205 and 206). Rolls 1-317.

The petitions are arranged chronologically by the date the petition was filed in the court, and they are numbered consecutively. There is an alphabetical name index in the front of each volume through volume 87, which ends on Dec. 6, 1916. Volumes after 87 do not contain indexes.

Included on each petition is the name, address, and occupation of the petitioner, his or her date and place of birth, the date and place of emigration to the United States, the date and port of arrival in this country and the name of the vessel or other conveyance on which he or she arrived, the period of residency in the United States and in Massachusetts, and the date and court where the declaration of intention was filed (if such a declaration was required). Through the period December, 1911, a brief physical description is included on the back of each petition which shows the petitioner's height, and color of hair, eyes and complexion, as well as the age of his spouse. After 1911 similar information is included on the copy of the declaration of intention.

Also included on the petition is the name of the petitioner's spouse and the place where he or she was born and the names, dates, and places of birth and residency of the petitioner's children. The petition also contains the names, addresses and occupations of two citizens submitting affidavits in support of the petition, the petitioner's oath of allegiance to the United States and renunciation of loyalty to a foreign government, the court order admitting the applicant as a citizen or denying or dismissing the petition, and the issue date and number of the certificate of naturalization. Occasionally a paper concerning the revocation of citizenship, expatriation or a name change will be attached to the petition. This series includes 48 volumes of petitions filed by military personnel stationed at Camp Devens in Ayer, Massachusetts, and other military facilities in the greater Boston area during the period May, 1918, to March, 1919. These petitions are part of the numbered sequence in this series and are not filed separately. Other military petitions from this court for the year 1919 were filed and maintained as a separate series of 22 volumes and will be filmed as part of this microfilm publication immediately following this series (rolls 310-317).

Beginning in March, 1909, copies of petitioners' declarations of intention are attached to the petitions, and copies of certificates of arrival are included beginning in October, 1911. Beginning in July, 1929, the petition form was changed to include additional information and was reduced in size from 17 1/2" x 11" to 10 3/4" x 8 1/2". This microfilm publication stops with the introduction of the new petition form.

Records of the US Circuit Court

PETITIONS AND RECORDS OF NATURALIZATION. Oct., 1906 - Dec., 1911, petition numbers 1 to 5357. 22 volumes (rolls 318-330)

The petitions are arranged chronologically by the date the petition was filed in the court, and they are numbered consecutively. There is an alphabetical name index in the front of each volume.

Included on each petition is the name, address and occupation of the petitioner; his or her date and place of birth; citizenship or nationality; physical description, through September, 1909 (height, color of eyes, hair and complexion and any visible marks); the date and place of emigration; the date and port of arrival in this country and the name of the vessel on which arrived; the period of residency in Massachusetts and in the United States; and the date and place where the declaration of intention was filed. Also included is the name, age, date and place of birth and the residency of the petitioner's spouse and children. The petition also contains the names, addresses, and occupations of two citizens submitting affidavits in support of the petition; the petitioner's oath of allegiance to the United States and renunciation of loyalty to a foreign government; the court order admitting the applicant as a citizen or dismissing the petition; and the issue date and the number of the certificate of naturalization.

Occasionally a paper concerning the revocation of citizenship, expatriation or a name change will be attached to the petition. Beginning in September, 1909, a copy of the declaration of intention accompanies the petition.

[The petition numbers are very difficult to read on a number of these documents and a guess sometimes had to be made as to what the number of the certificate is.]
